Commemorating Veterans Day with Rocky Point VFW

Rocky Point, NY, November 2014 –On Tuesday, November 11th, Legislator Sarah Anker, member of Suffolk County Veterans and Seniors Committee, joined members of the Rocky Point community at Rocky Point Fischer-Hewins Post 6249 in commemorating Veterans Day. During the event, Legislator Anker presented Certificates of Recognition to the local boy scouts of Troop 94 and members of the community who assisted in the building of the September 11th memorial at Rocky Point VFW Meeting Hall.

“I am proud to join Rocky Point VFW Fischer Hewins Post 6249 to honor the men and women of our armed forces,” said Legislator Anker. “I commend the bravery of our veterans and I am humbled to pay tribute to those who continue to serve and protect our country.”

The event was sponsored by Rocky Point VFW Fischer-Hewins Post 6249. The VFW assists veterans and their families throughout Suffolk County. For more information about Fischer-Hewins Post 6249, visit www.vfw6249.com.
